Discipline shall be the sole management right of the City, see Article 4. The City agrees to maintain adequate policies and procedures, which specifically outline disciplinary procedures. Discipline shall only be administered for just cause, and progressive discipline shall be utilized whenever possible. The best interest is served when discipline is administered to correct actions rather than to punish. In instances where employees are covered by a collective bargaining agreement, any contrary disciplinary provision of the labor contract shall govern.

(2) Forms of Discipline

- a. Warning. Whenever employee performance or job-related behavior falls below the acceptable level, the employee's supervisor shall inform the employee of the deficiencies. If appropriate and justified following the discussion, a reasonable period for improvement or correction may be allowed before initiating formal disciplinary action. This warning may be written or verbal and will be noted in the employee's personnel file.
- b. Written Reprimand. In situations where a warning has not resulted in correction of the condition, or where more severe initial action is warranted, a written reprimand shall be presented to the employee by his/her supervisor at the time of the discussion of the discipline. The reprimand shall include what corrective action must be taken by the employee to avoid further disciplinary measures, and must be signed by the employee and placed in the employee's personnel file. A copy will be provided to the employee. Should the employee refuse to sign the reprimand, then the supervisor and one other witness shall note on the reprimand that the employee received a copy thereof and refused to sign it. Within five (5) days of receipt of the copy the employee may submit a written response, which will also be placed in the employee's personnel file.
- c. Suspension. If the written reprimand is not effective, or in those cases where the seriousness of the offense or condition warrants, an employee may be suspended without pay by the Department Head or his designee for a period not to exceed thirty (30) working days.
- d. Involuntary Demotion. When other forms of disciplinary or corrective action have proven ineffective, or when the seriousness of the offense or condition warrants, the Department Head or his designee may demote the employee.

- e. Termination. As a final disciplinary measure when other forms of discipline or corrective action has proven ineffective, or when the seriousness of the offense or condition warrants, the Department Head or his designee may terminate the employee.

(3) Notice of Suspension, Involuntary Demotion or Termination

All notices of suspension, involuntary demotion or termination shall be given to the employee, in writing, specifying the action to be taken, the grounds upon which the action is based, a statement of facts constituting conduct for which discipline is to be imposed, including specification of standards, rules, regulations, ordinances, laws, or policies violated, if applicable, and the date the action becomes effective. The employee's department head or designee shall provide said written notice to the employee five (5) working days prior to the effective date of the action when this action is the result of progressive disciplinary steps. When an incident is of such seriousness in nature to warrant immediate termination, the employee shall receive the notice of termination as prescribed herein as soon after the termination as is reasonably possible, or within five (5) working days.

The City Manager or his designee may serve notice upon an employee by mail or personal service. If mailed, notice shall be mailed to the employee at his/her last known address by certified mail, return receipt requested. Receipt shall be deemed the date of first attempt of delivery as indicated on the return receipt. Should notice be returned to sender, receipt shall be deemed to be on the third day after the date of mailing of the notice.

The employee, who may be accompanied by a Union representative, may proceed with the disciplinary grievance procedures for termination, involuntary demotions, and suspensions without pay if s/he so desires.

(4) Administrative Leave During Disciplinary Proceeding

In cases of contemplated discharge or suspension concerning misconduct which presents possible harm to persons or property, or pending criminal charges which adversely and directly affect the City or substantially disrupt City operations, the City Manager may place the employee on administrative leave, pending an investigation prior to or during a disciplinary proceeding, or during the review of the employee's response to a proposed disciplinary action. The employee will be notified, in writing, of the decision to place him/her on administrative leave. The notice will include a statement that the leave is not a disciplinary action.

ARTICLE 17 LABOR/MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

The CITY and Union agree to establish a Labor/Management Committee. The Committee shall be comprised of the City Manager and may include two (2) individuals chosen by the City Manager or City Council, and one (1) member from each department covered by this agreement. The sole purpose of said committee will be for the benefit of the City and Union members to discuss potential problems regarding interpretation or application of this agreement. The City and Union will make every effort to accommodate written requests for a meeting within ten (10) working days.

ARTICLE 18 GRIEVANCES AND ARBITRATION PROCEDURE

(1) General

- a. A grievance is defined as a complaint or dispute regarding interpretation and application of this agreement.
- b. The procedures set forth in this Article shall be the exclusive remedy for any dispute or complaint as defined in "a" above.
- c. The term "working days" is based upon a five (5) day work week, beginning on Monday and ending on Friday.
- d. Grievances not moved to the next step within the established time limits will be deemed settled according to the decision rendered in the last step processed. Time limits may be extended or waived by mutual written agreement.
- e. The employee shall have ten (10) working days in which to initiate a grievance, counting from the date the employee should have reasonably known about the circumstances giving rise to the grievance.
- f. At each step of the grievance procedure, the City shall have up to ten (10) working days to respond to the employee, and the employee shall have up to ten (10) working days from the date of the City's response in which to submit the grievance to the next step.
- g. A grievance may be advanced to any step in this procedure by mutual written agreement between the City and the grievant.

(2) Informal Procedure

Prior to submitting a written grievance, the employee must discuss the circumstances with his/her immediate supervisor. The employee may bring a Union representative to this meeting.

(3) Formal Procedure

Step 1 If the issue is not satisfactorily resolved, the employee may submit the issue to the Union Grievance Committee. The Union Grievance Committee may recommend that the Union submit a formal grievance to the City Manager. If the Union does not submit a formal grievance, the grievant may proceed on his/her own behalf.

Step 2 If the City Manager and the Union or grievant cannot reach a satisfactory resolution, the Union or the grievant has the right to submit the grievance to the City Council at the next possible regular City Council meeting. The City Council must render an offer of compromise, grant the grievance, or deny the grievance.

Step 3 If the Union or the grievant is not satisfied with the decision of the City Council, the Union or the grievant may submit the grievance to arbitration as outlined below.

(4) Arbitration Procedure

Step 1 Upon receipt of notification of request for arbitration, the City and the Union or grievant will attempt to select an arbitrator mutually agreed upon.

Step 2 If the City and Union or grievant cannot agree upon an arbitrator, they shall jointly request the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service to provide the names of seven (7) arbiters experienced in the area to be arbitrated.

Step 3 One arbitrator shall be selected by alternately striking names from the list. The Union or grievant shall strike first. The grievance shall be submitted to the last remaining arbitrator.

Step 4 Arbitration shall be under the rules of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service. The arbitrator shall have no power to add to, subtract from, or modify the terms of this agreement and department rules and regulations and shall confine his/her decision to a determination of the facts and an interpretation and application of this agreement. The arbitrator shall render a decision within thirty (30) days from conclusion of the hearing.

(5) Award

The arbitrator's decision shall be binding on the Union and its members, the employee or employees involved, and the City. Any award to an employee shall be less any unemployment compensation received, or for which the employee would otherwise be eligible to receive.

(6) Costs and Fees of Arbitration
